Certified Enterprise Coach (CEC) Application - SAMPLE

Application Instructions
Download and read the CEC Application Instructions from the Scrum Alliance Website before filling out this application.

Part II: Agile Coaching Specialties and Competencies
The second part of the CEC Application is a qualitative evaluation of your capability as a coach evidenced through your diversity of coaching focus and your ability to demonstrate proficiency across a wide range of competencies. It evaluates your learning, mindset, and approach as a coach across a diversity of experience.

DO NOT FILL IN PART II OF THE APPLICATION UNTIL AFTER PART I HAS BEEN APPROVED.

Summary
There are four sections in Part II of the CEC Application. Each section carries equal weight - roughly representing 25% of your overall assessment as a CEC. Applicants must demonstrate proficiency in each section to receive certification. Applicants are measured on their understanding, articulation, and application of the skill or competency through an effective coaching mindset and approach. Thus, it is not enough that you have experience in the skill or competency, but rather that you have an appropriate coaching mindset and execution process in seeing it through.

Section II-A: Coaching Mindset

Purpose: Certified Enterprise Coaches support those seeking to better understand and apply Agile within their organizations. A CEC is required to demonstrate a coaching mindset of openness, learning and growth through three (3) client coaching engagements. The Coaching Mindset is further detailed in Section II-A.

Section II-B: Coaching Competencies

Purpose: Certified Enterprise Coaches are agile practitioners and guides to their client organizations in assessing, adopting, facilitating, transitioning, catalyzing and growing their agile capabilities. A CEC is required to demonstrate proficiency in three (3) coaching competency areas. Coaching Competencies are further detailed in Section II-B.

Section II-C: Coaching Specialties

Purpose: Due to the diversity of agile frameworks available and the dynamic nature of organizations, CECs find themselves in a variety of settings requiring proficiency across a diverse pool of specialties. A CEC is required to demonstrate coaching proficiency in three (3) specialty areas which often surround an Agile implementation. The Coaching Specialties are further detailed in Section II-C.

Section II-D: Clients and Mentor Coaching Recommendations

Purpose: To provide evidence of the proficiency of your coaching mindset, specialties, and competencies in client organizations, three (3) recommendations, two (2) client recommendations, and one (1) mentor recommendation are required. A mentor recommendation is from someone that has provided you learning and growth in your coaching journey.

Have the client or mentor email their recommendations directly to coachingcertification@scrumalliance.org.
The recommendation may be written directly in the email or included as a document (Word or pdf) attached to the email.

- Client recommendations need to include timeframes and organizational scope of the coaching, key responsibilities of the coach, and their impact on yourself (the recommender) and to the organization.
- Mentor recommendations need to include timeframes and the intensity of collaboration, their attitude in coaching, their aptitude in learning, and their action in guiding individual and organizational change.

Section II-A: Coaching Mindset

Purpose: A CEC is required to demonstrate a coaching mindset of openness, learning and growth from three (3) client coaching engagements.

Coaching Mindset 1: Describe a time when the outcome of a key coaching direction, decision or approach was different from what you had desired or anticipated. How did you approach the situation? What have you learned as a result of it? (response is limited to 600 words or less)

Coaching Mindset 2: Contrast two (2) client engagements where you were required to modify your coaching mindset, approach or style to meet the client needs. What compromises did you make? What did you learn? (response is limited to 600 words or less)

Coaching Mindset 3: Describe a significant client engagement for which you were required to learn a new coaching technique or skill in order to meet the client needs. What was the new learning? What approach did you utilize? What were the outcomes for you and the client? (response is limited to 600 words or less)
Section II-B: Coaching Competencies

Purpose: Certified Enterprise Coaches are agile practitioners and guides to their client organizations in assessing, adopting, facilitating, transitioning, catalyzing and growing their agile capabilities. A CEC is required to demonstrate coaching proficiency across three (3) of the five (5) core Agile Coaching Competencies listed below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Core Agile Coaching Competencies</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Assess - Discovery &amp; Direction</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Balance - Coaching &amp; Consulting</td>

<tr>
<td>4. Facilitate - Focus &amp; Alignment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Educate - Awareness &amp; Understanding</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The following three (3) core Agile Coaching Competencies are evaluated in this application through three (3) questions on the following page.

Coaching Competency 1: Assess - Discovery & Direction

CECs act as a mirror to the organization, surfacing the underlying systems which influence it for awareness, reflection and direction of increased agility and improved performance. They can see below the surface, expose challenging symptoms and isolate root causes.

Coaching Competency 2: Balance - Coaching & Consulting

CECs balance their own agile expertise with their client’s goals and intent. They understand and respect the nature of a client-consulting relationship whether as an employee or consultant. They ask powerful questions, lead by example, share their expertise, and guide client self-discovery.

Coaching Competency 3: Catalyze - Leadership & Organizations

CECs are change agents for their client organizations. They engage with the whole organizational system and the leaders who guide them. They enhance the client’s existing skills and capabilities. They connect interdependencies and impact organizational reflection, learning and growth.

The following two (2) core Agile Coaching Competencies are not directly evaluated through questions in this application but are still considered core. CEC candidates are expected to develop them through their education and experience.

Coaching Competency 4: Facilitate - Focus & Alignment

Certified Enterprise Coaches facilitate client agile adoption, implementation, and alignment. They engage stakeholders in focused pivotal conversations and alignment-building activities. They maintain non-biased views and leverage collaboration and resolution strategies in identifying creative outcomes.

Coaching Competency 5: Educate - Awareness & Understanding

Certified Enterprise Coaches guide the client’s agile learning through application and discovery. They focus on stabilizing principles and varying practices to situationally align the client’s maturity with effective application of agility. They are a mentor and leader in developing client understanding and awareness of agility.
Tip: In all your responses, help us understand your competency of conceptualization. As a guide-level coach, we need to not only understand what we do and how we do it, we need to be able to help our clients build the same capacity – we need to be able to help them grasp and learn how we do what we do. To that end, framing our work in clear and crisp concepts is essential to our lasting impact.

Coaching Competency 1: Prior to engaging in a client coaching engagement, share your strategy for ASSESSING that organization’s readiness and informing your coaching focus. Why did you choose that strategy? Share a specific client example leveraging it. (response is limited to 600 words)

Coaching Competency 2: How did you develop your competency to BALANCE coaching and consulting? Contrast two (2) experiences where your balance was “out of balance”. How has your approach changed from these experiences? (response is limited to 600 words)

Coaching Competency 3: Share your approach towards CATALYZING organizational change. How do you know you are making a difference? Describe three (3) key leverage points you focus on through your coaching, and why. (response is limited to 600 words)
Section II-C: Coaching Specialties

Purpose: Due to the diversity of agile frameworks available and the dynamic nature of organizations, Certified Enterprise Coaches find themselves in a variety of settings requiring proficiency across a diverse pool of specialties. A CEC is required to demonstrate coaching proficiency in three (3) specialties areas which often surround an Agile implementation.

Demonstrate your coaching proficiency of three (3) coaching specialties from the list below. For each specialty, respond to the same question on the following page.

Section II-D: Clients and Mentor Coaching Recommendations

Purpose: To provide evidence of your proficiency in your coaching specialties and competencies in client organizations. Applying to the CEC Program requires three (3) recommendations. You are required to have two (2) client recommendations and one (1) mentor recommendation. A mentor recommendation is from someone that has provided you learning and growth in your coaching journey.

Have the client or mentor email their recommendations directly to coachingcertification@scrumalliance.org. The recommendation may be written directly in the email or included as a document (Word or PDF) attached to the email. Recommendations do not require a specific template or format, however, the contents of the recommendation must include particular context as stated below.

- Client recommendations need to include timeframes and organizational scope of the coaching, key responsibilities of the coach, and their impact on yourself (the recommender) and to the organization.

- Mentor recommendations need to include timeframes and the intensity of collaboration, the candidate’s attitude in coaching, aptitude in learning, and action in guiding individual and organizational change.

CEC Applicants who submitted references in prior application attempts are allowed to resubmit those recommendations if they were written within the past two (2) years. Alternatively you may want to ask for newer recommendations to highlight new experiences and learning.

Section II-E: Additional Perspective and Feedback

Purpose: To provide a free-form opportunity to share any additional dimensions of your coaching journey (learning, experience, or community involvement) you feel would be important for the review team to understand. These items are not required.

Additional Coaching Perspectives

If you feel that the space above (in Part II) did not provide you an opportunity to demonstrate a dimension of yourself that would be important to share, use the space below to include it. Expand the space as needed.

Part III: Supplemental Certified Team Coach (CTC) Application

A Certified Team Coach works with Agile teams, stakeholders, and management to improve performance and outcomes. Organizations employ Certified Team Coaches to provide coaching, facilitation, training, mentoring, impediment management, and leadership in support of collaboration, development consistency, and value delivery across multiple teams and departments.

Unlike a ScrumMaster, a Certified Team Coach works across multiple teams. And unlike a Certified Enterprise Coach®, a Certified Team Coach focuses on a subset of an organization in a project or program, or across multiple teams.

This certification offers a recognized credential to qualified coaches who have experience with many teams or departments and can effectively impact department, project, and program agility.
Complete both questions below to apply for the CTC application. Note: applying for the CTC application is optional and is in addition to the CEC application.

1. Describe your approach to:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Focus</th>
<th>Tool, technique, or framework</th>
<th>Brief description of tool, technique, or framework. How much have you used the tool, technique, or framework? Why do you leverage the tool, technique, or framework in your coaching? (Response is limited to 100 words or fewer.)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>❑ Multi-team release management</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Identify two team formation and development challenges commonly encountered while introducing Scrum. For each, describe a coaching approach to address the challenge. (600 words)

THIS IS THE END OF THE CEC APPLICATION PART II.

When you have completed Part II of the application, send an email to coachingcertification@scrumalliance.org. You will be notified regarding your mentor and client recommendations if any are still outstanding.
