

Contract between Members of the ScrumTeam

The ProductOwner promises the Team to he/she will supply an initial Product Backlog.

The ProductOwner promises the Team that he/she will prioritize the Product Backlog when needed.

The ScrumMaster promises to keep the Team healthy by focusing on the removal of impediments, both internal and external.

The ProductOwner promises that an empowered “voice of the customer” will be provided to answer business domain questions promptly (minutes / hours, not days).

The ScrumTeam promises that its work will be transparent, that it will make decisions and solve problems as a group, and that no individual Team member will be left behind.

Each member of the ScrumTeam promises that they will bring issues, problems, impediments and realities encountered to the ScrumTeam
